PROENERGY ONE POWER STAFFING OPENS OFFICE IN MEXICO

SEDALIA, Mo. (May 20, 2015) – ProEnergy One Power Staffing recently opened an office in Mexico, making it their sixth office in Missouri. The company offers temporary and contract staffing, permanent recruitment, outplacement and career services.

“One Power Staffing has opened three other offices in Missouri and one office in Texas in the past year, to support our growth and better serve our clients in those regions,” said Nancy Grey, Director of One Power Staffing. “We like to be close as we focus on customizing staffing programs that help us obtain the highest quality professionals for our clients.”

Currently in and around Mexico, there are many positions available, ranging from General Laborers, Machine Operators, Project Managers and QA techs to various types of Engineers. The new office is located at 310 West Monroe. Interested job seekers can contact Breanna Schelp at 573-777-8845.

One Power Staffing, a division of ProEnergy, is focused on recruiting and retaining the most qualified light industrial professionals for clients throughout the United States. One Power Staffing offices are located in Sedalia, Springfield, Columbia, Mexico, Chillicothe and Kansas City, Missouri, as well as Houston, Texas.

ProEnergy is responsible for the construction, management, operations, maintenance, and repair services for energy generation facilities and equipment around the world.
